What would you do if you woke up on your 18th birthday and were told that you would never walk again, or learned that you would no longer feed or dress yourself and your only movement would be from the neck up? That's exactly what happened to Ron Heagy when he broke his neck in a surfing accident in 1980.

Ron's amazing story is one of courage, strength and true inspiration. In spite of his total paralysis, he chose to get better rather than bitter and live life with purpose and passion. Against all odds, and using a pen clenched between his teeth, Ron graduated from San Diego State University with a Master's Degree in Social Work. Inspired by his mother, Theresa, he became an amazing artist using a paint brush in his mouth—each painting taking up to hundreds of hours to complete.

Ron is an accomplished writer, as well as a loving husband and father. With his wife Kelli, he travels the world as a motivational speaker, inspiring the lives of others in a powerful way. With his humor and real life experiences, Ron teaches people of all ages how to turn adversity into opportunity, and to live the abundant life. Their 501 (c)(3) non-profit charity, "Never Give Up," helps Ron's message of hope find its way into public schools and youth organizations—thanks to generous donors like you!

The prints and materials featured in this bulletin clearly depict Ron's awesome God-given talents. Many people have invested in at least one of his pieces as a way to continually inspire them to be all they were meant to be. With your purchase you are allowing Ron the opportunity to "roll on," as he continues to reach others with his life-changing message—Never Give Up.

Thank you, and may God powerfully use your life.

Ron is a highly sought-after speaker. He has spoken to millions of individuals internationally, delivering his message of hope, heart and inspiration, and a reason to never give up.

He states, "My goal is to assist everyone in choosing to turn negatives into positives, losses into gains, to become better, not bitter. I believe that life is an attitude and that we should never give up, no matter what the circumstances or situations in the past, present, or future. Make the decision to be all that you are meant to be. Everyone can succeed, and with the right attitude, determination, motivation, and inspiration, they will! It's about your mind, spirit, emotion, and body. Society focuses mostly on body. It's my goal to help each person to become a whole, balanced, and virtually unstoppable human being!"

"Ron Heagy Jr. is truly one of the most inspiring leaders I have ever met! Like my father, he has not allowed his circumstance to inhibit his impact. You are not the same after meeting Ron Heagy!"

—Martin Luther King III
